Instant access to up-to-date, comprehensive law research

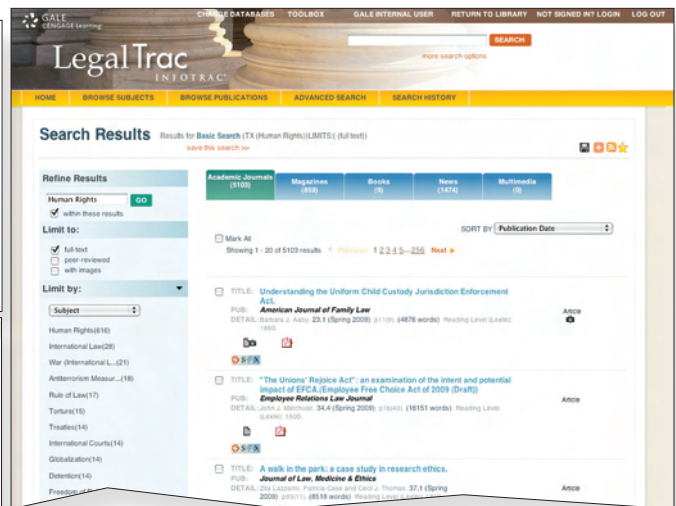

The ideal resource for students, law school faculty and legal researchers, LegalTrac features a comprehensive collection of major legal publications. This invaluable database provides indexing for more than 1,500 major law reviews, legal newspapers, specialty publications, Bar Association journals and international legal journals, including more than 200 titles in full text.

The American Association of Law Libraries (AALL), not only endorses LegalTrac, its special advisory committee selects, reviews and enhances the content for this resource yearly — meaning researchers can benefit from timely, accurate results with every search.

Available on the state-of-the-art Gale PowerSearch platform, LegalTrac meets the needs of today's 24/7 researcher with around-the-clock remote access to a comprehensive selection of the most prestigious and comprehensive selection of legal publications available.

The homepage offers a variety of search options, including a quick basic search. Researchers can easily narrow their results by using limiters for more targeted searching.

LegalTrac provides 24/7 access to major law reviews, specialty publications, legal journals and other resources. Search results may be viewed by Subject, Document Type or Publication Title.

By consolidating these legal publications into a single database, LegalTrac makes it easy to obtain relevant information on virtually any legal topic in a single search.
